1.8 Accounting Guidance

1. Quasi mandatory obligation

The concept of CSR is based on the principle of 'Comply or Explain' and hence it is a quasi-mandatory obligation. In the event of any short spending of the CSR amount, such short spend needs to be disclosed & explained in the Director's report of the legal entity for the financial year in which such short spends have occurred.

	Subject: Policy on Corporate Social Responsibility	Original Issue Date: 4th November 2014	Effective Date: 3 October 2016
		Revision/Review Dates: 3 October 2016 27 February 2015	Policy No.: v1.0 of 2016

2. Computation of Profit for CSR contribution

With respect to the CSR contribution, the profit needs to be computed as per section 198 of the Companies Act 2013.

3. Accounting process & Disclosure

3.1 Expense Booking

- CSR expenses are like any other type of business expense.
- Such expense shall be booked in a manner such that they are easily identifiable in the books of accounts and readily retrievable (by nature of expense, by project etc.) when required for verification / reporting / audit / MIS purpose.
- CSR expenses would be accounted on the basis of actual spend.
- CSR activity expenses should be easily identifiable as the same is not allowed as deduction under Income tax act.
- It is recommended to follow any of the approach laid below for recording of transactions related to CSR depending on the ERP setup:
  - Open a separate expense account and use sub-accounts and flex fields to record expense by category/project etc. OR
  - Adopt a cost center approach to record expense by project.

3.2 Accrual of CSR Liabilities

- Since CSR is a quasi – mandatory obligation, no accrual of eligible (as per section 135 of the Companies Act) CSR spends needs to be made in books of accounts at the beginning of the financial year or every quarter equivalent to the eligible (as per section 135 of the Companies Act) CSR spends.
- No accrual would also be required in case there is any short spend on CSR at the end of the financial year. However, the same needs to be disclosed in the Director's Report (Refer Pt 1 above)
- In case you have incurred the expense / undertaken any CSR activities but remain unpaid then the same needs to be accrued as a liability in the books of accounts just like any other regular business expense.

3.3 Disclosure in Financial statements

CSR spend would be reported under 'Other Expenses' as a separate category in the 'Notes to Financial Statements'.

4. Audit responsibilities

Auditors would be performing necessary audit procedure similar to auditing any other expense head. They will also validate the end use and the Schedule VII (Companies Act 2013) category, under which spend has been incurred.
