1.7 Breaches Escalation and Exceptions

Breaches to the policy will need to be reported and approved by the CSR Committee of Directors and the Board of Directors of the Company.

Any exception to the policy will require Board of Directors approval.

1.8 Accounting Guidance

1. Quasi mandatory obligation

The concept of CSR is based on the principle of 'Comply or Explain' and hence it is a quasi-mandatory obligation. In the event of any short spending of the CSR amount, such short spend needs to be disclosed & explained in the Director's report for the financial year in which such short spends have occurred.

2. Computation of Profit for CSR contribution

With respect to the CSR contribution, the profit needs to be computed as per section 198 of the Act.

3. Accounting process & Disclosure

3.1 Expense Booking

- CSR expenses are like any other type of business expense.
- Such expense shall be booked in a manner such that they are easily identifiable in the books of accounts and readily retrievable (by nature of expense, by project etc.) when required for verification / reporting / audit / MIS purpose.
- CSR expenses would be accounted on the basis of actual spend.
- CSR activity expenses should be easily identifiable as the same is not allowed as deduction under Income tax act.

	Subject: Policy on Corporate Social Responsibility	Original Issue Date: 4 November 2014	Effective Date: 27 May 2026
		Revision/Review Dates: 3 October 2016 27 February 2015 26 May 2023 12 August 2025	Policy No.: v1.0 of 2026

- It is recommended to follow any of the approach laid below for recording of transactions related to CSR depending on the ERP setup:
  - Open a separate expense account and use sub-accounts and flex fields to record expense by category/project etc. OR
  - Adopt a cost center approach to record expense by project.

3.2 Accrual of CSR Liabilities

- Since CSR is a quasi – mandatory obligation, no accrual of eligible (as per section 135 of the Act) CSR spend needs to be made in books of accounts at the beginning of the financial year or every quarter equivalent to the eligible (as per section 135 of the Act) CSR spends.
- No accrual would also be required in case there is any short spend on CSR at the end of the financial year. However, the same needs to be disclosed in the Director’s Report (Refer Pt 1 above)
- In case the expense has been incurred on any CSR activity undertaken, but remains unpaid then the same needs to be accrued as a liability in the books of accounts just like any other regular business expense.

3.3 Disclosure in Financial statements

CSR spend would be reported under ‘Other Expenses’ as a separate category in the ‘Notes to Financial Statements’.

4. Audit responsibilities

Auditors would be performing necessary audit procedure similar to auditing any other expense head. They will also validate the end use and the category of Schedule VII of the Act, under which spend has been incurred.

The list of Schedule VII categories are as under:

- i. eradicating hunger, poverty and malnutrition, promoting preventive health care including preventive health care and sanitation including contribution to the Swachh Bharat Khosh set-up by the Central Government for the promotion of sanitation and making available safe drinking water;
